

Experience Circus up close - announcement and request

From 24.08. until 02.09. we are organizing the 4th edition of the Berlin Circus Festival for contemporary circus at Tempelhof Field.

A ten-day program with young and internationally established artists. The contemporary circus is an exciting hybrid stage form that is already fills the theaters with great success abroad and enjoys high recognition and has provided for a sold out festival last year:

Renowned productions, spectacular shows and great young talent will inspire and surprise you.

The Berlin Circus Festival is looking for people who will give our international guests a cozy home and a warm welcome here in Berlin. You will get a unique insight into the festival and get to know exciting people from all over Europe.

Can you imagine hosting someone for two or more days?

Then write us a short mail:

circuswagon.bcf@gmail.com

Subject: Circuswagon

Tell us briefly what you can offer, how long you want to host someone, where you live and how we can reach you. Our gratitude is certain to you and how we return with two free tickets for a show of your choice.

More information is available at www.berlin-circus-festival.de or Facebook

The Berlin Circus Festival Team